

Workforce Privacy Notice – January 2019

Workforce information and data will be held, used and shared in accordance with Data Protection Act (1998) legislation and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), 25th May 2018.

Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulation Privacy Notice

(How we use school workforce information)

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- ◆ personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- ◆ special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group
- ◆ contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- ◆ work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- ◆ qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- ◆ Relevant medical information

Why we collect and use this information

We use school workforce data to:

- ◆ enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- ◆ inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- ◆ enable individuals to be paid
- ◆ Ensure the school is a safe and secure environment for pupils and staff to work in

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We process this information under the basis of Article 6, and Article 9 of the GDPR from 25 May 2018) and the Education Act (1996).

Collecting this information

Whilst most of the information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing this information

We hold school workforce data for the periods set out in the County Records of Retention document

Who we share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- ◆ our local authority
- ◆ the Department for Education (DfE)

In line with our Statutory duties set out in the Education Act (1996), Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007, in school policies such as Financial Procedures and Regulations and in key Safeguarding documents: Keeping Children Safe in Education (2018). Working Together to Safeguard Children (2018) and the Prevent Duty (2015).

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.

We are required to share information about our school employees with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- ◆ conducting research or analysis

- ◆ producing statistics
- ◆ providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- ◆ who is requesting the data
- ◆ the purpose for which it is required
- ◆ the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- ◆ the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
