

Good evening parents,

30.3.20

Alice and I have been trying to sort this for far longer than it should have taken!

Below is a link to a test video of Alice (my daughter) and I going through all the Japanese your children have learnt in term 2. They should be able to understand and repeat almost everything on the video...

If this proves a useful way of communicating with the children, we will use it after Easter if we are not back at school.

Thanks

Joseph Green
